Message was on Jesus demanding all of our allegiance.

He has come not to bring peace, but a sword. One's enemies will be the members of their own household.

We cannot serve half way – time is coming when we must be ALL in.

There are sheep, wolves and goats in the house of God. Which one are you?

1. Sheep belong to the Good Shepherd Jesus – they hear his voice and they follow.
2. Wolves disguise themselves as sheep but are servants of Satan.
3. Goats? Who are the goats? They look like sheep, but they but everything God is doing. These are the resisters, the trouble makers, they seek to have their own way... they do not follow... they cause disruptions in the body of Christ.

We must put God first. Above mother, father, daughter, son, husband, wife. . .

When we are forced to choose, who will we choose? Will we choose to serve Jesus even if it causes our loved ones to reject us?
